Fall Festival Day

Each year the parents and staff try to put together gift bags for the students to take home after Fall Festival Day (October 22). If you could donate items for these gift bags such as: candy, stampers, stickers, pencils, balls, or any other small items for the students to play with or eat. Please no witches, ghosts, or goblins. You can send these items to school with your children and we will make sure to get them directed to the right place. Thank you to all who donated thus far!!

Pizza Lunch will be provided

we STILL need the following food donations for lunch: (I will post this on the Christ Lutheran Parents Facebook page today)

Salad fixings & dressing, Fruit and Dessert.

Please let Ms. Jennifer know if you can donate anything for this fun filled day!

Parents are not permitted to attend the fall festival this year unless you are helping in the kitchen due to Covid protocols. * I assure you we will take lots of pictures of the event~

GET YOUR BIBLE COSTUMES READY!

*Please have your child dress up in a Bible Character costume- this can be a person or animal from the Bible. Such as Angel, Donkey, Noah etc... If you need help with getting costumes together please see Ms. Jennifer, we have some items available at school!
